Garbage Sticker Price Change July 1

The price of garbage/yard waste and leaf stickers will increase on July 1, 2015, as set by the City's contract with Advanced Disposal Services. Garbage and yard waste, which both use the same blue stickers, will increase from $3.55 per sticker to $3.62. Green leaf stickers will increase from $2.92 per sticker to $2.98.

Stickers are available at City Hall; a number of grocery, hardware and convenience stores; and by calling Advanced Disposal Services at 630-587-8282.

Residents Appointed to City Commissions

The City Council re-appointed Anne Wanzenberg to the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners for a three-year term, re-appointed Matt Litfin to the Board of Trustees Police Pension Fund for a two-year term and appointed Bob McDonough to the Planning & Zoning Board for a five-year term.

Commission Presents 2015 Good Citizen Award Winners

During the May 18, 2015 City Council meeting, Wheaton's Community Relations Commission honored residents with awards recognizing many ways they have given back to the community. From large-scale fundraising efforts to working one-on-one with residents in need, this year's Good Citizen Awards recognized students, adults and groups who have made a difference in Wheaton.

Student Category award recipients include:

Heidi Nassos, Wheaton Warrenville South High School, raised $17,434 for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation through six years of lemonade stands and bake sales. The award also recognized her outstanding athletic and scholastic achievements.

Patrick Fitzgerald, Wheaton Warrenville South High School, dedicated 80 hours toward his Eagle Scout project restoring the central water feature in the school's Memorial Garden, which honors students and staff who have passed away.

Ugna Dinsmonaite,

Battle of the Books volunteer leader at Washington Elementary School. The award recognized the many hours she spends preparing for lessons and leading 30 students, in addition to teaching religious education at her church and being an Art Smart teacher at Washington Elementary School.

Anne Wanzenberg has served as Longfellow's PTA president, raising funds for students to participate in field trips who could not otherwise afford them. She also volunteers her time through the City's Police and Fire Commission and through fundraising activities to serve others who are less fortunate.

Kenna Anderson continually supports Wheaton Warrenville South's academic and athletic programs, fundraising for a cancer fund she started in her daughter's name, and she provided foundational support to fund a scholarship honoring celebrated teacher Tom Todd.

Chris Ellerman has been the director of Outreach Community Ministries for more than 20 years. His efforts have focused on helping disadvantaged and troubled youth, mentoring them to self-reliance and adulthood.

Ron Smith has served as a Cub and Boy Scout adult leader for 12 years. He has devoted much of his time mentoring scouts and attending training classes to become a better leader.

Randy Carey, a retired Army Lieutenant, led children in boot camps at Lincoln and Whittier Elementary Schools, volunteered his time through Edison's PTA, coached youth soccer and basketball teams and led a number of programs focusing on character and leadership at Wheaton Evangelical Free Church.

Heather Johnson volunteers her time to Briar Glen Elementary School, including the overwhelmingly successful Science Club she started to inspire students to become more interested in science. Approximately one-quarter of the school participates in Science Club.

Group Category award recipients include:

DuPage Master Gardeners of DuPage Convalescent Center volunteer their time to improve the quality of life of Convalescent Center residents through therapeutic horticulture. More than 30 Master Gardeners work weekly with resident gardeners in growing flowers and vegetables that are planted, harvested and enjoyed by residents or donated to the People's Resource Center. The volunteers helped host a Garden Walk, won a grant to build a wheelchair accessible Rainbow Garden, and have been instrumental in the Convalescent Center building an outdoor classroom.

Rick and Tammy Erickson created the Framed Reflections Project, which honored numerous servicemen and servicewomen in the community, displaying photos and memoirs of their service and culminating in a Veteran's Day Service.

High school students Emma Sporer, Christina Adams, Jess Stransky and Jordan Wicks created the Kickball Classic for the Ross K. MacNeill Foundation to end pediatric brain cancer. The

Free Bike Valet at Taste of Wheaton

Bicycle Advisory Committee manning station June 6

You can skip searching for a parking spot at the Taste of Wheaton on Saturday, June 6, 2015, by using two wheels instead of four. The Wheaton Bicycle Advisory Committee encourages you to take advantage of free valet bike parking between 6:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 6.

Volunteers from the Bicycle Advisory Committee will be stationed on Karlsgoga Avenue (on the south side of Memorial Park) and will provide you with a numbered ticket. When you are done enjoying festivities at the Taste of Wheaton, simply return to the bike station in the same place you dropped it off and present your ticket. A volunteer will retrieve your bike and bring it to you. This is a free service; no tips will be accepted.

mittee will also have free biking maps available at the valet station. The committee is a division of the Environmental Improvement Commission, with a goal of promoting bike riding and bicycle safety in the community.

Bike to School Day Growing

Hundreds of Wheaton students chose a healthy, eco-friendly and fun way to get to school May 6, as Wheaton participated in National Bike to School Day. Wheaton's Bicycle Advisory Committee reported an overwhelmingly successful event, with 1,261 students participating from eight Community Unit School District 200 schools.

Students learned about bike safety and received "bike to school" stickers to show their participation. To learn more about safe riding, bicyclists of all ages can watch the video, "Think. Ride. Survive!", a project of the City's Bicycle Advisory Committee produced by the City's Communications Department.

Recycle Latex Paint through DuPage County Program

Recycling offered June 15 through July 15

Take advantage of DuPage County's Latex Paint Recycling Program, which takes place June 15 through July 15 at the Woodridge Greene Valley Wastewater Treatment Facility, 7900 S. Route 53 in Woodridge. The program is open Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. It is also open one Saturday, July 11, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Residents can drop off their usable, unwanted latex paint during the designated summer collection period free of charge. Usable paint includes paint that has not been frozen, is less than 10 years in age and has not been mixed with other products.

Want to pick up some paint? The program also offers an opportunity for residents to pick up free recycled latex paint, available starting June 22. The paint will be filtered and re-blended into a variety of colors, types and finishes. It is available for free to any resident, business or nonprofit in 5-gallon containers. Pick up recycled paint during the same hours as the paint drop-off.

Get Ready for the 4th

Wheaton's 2015 Fourth of July Parade continues a long tradition in Wheaton. What started as a community parade – with the headline in the July 5, 1916 "Wheaton Illinoian" newspaper reading: "Wheaton's Fourth is a Screamer" – has grown to become an event that draws thousands of spectators from Wheaton and surrounding communities.

This year's parade will feature numerous floats, bands and more, with the theme of "The All-American Picnic." The parade will step off at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 4, 2015 in downtown Wheaton.

Parade organizers are inviting former Mayors, City Council members and Grand Marshals to participate in this year's parade.

If your club, association, business or community group would like to participate in the parade, find out more and download a parade entry form on the Wheaton Park District's website or call 630-665-4710.

The Wheaton Park District will also host the Independence Day Fireworks and Family Event on Friday, July 3 at Graf Park. The event starts at 4 p.m., with fireworks at approximately 9 p.m.
