

Time Capsule Dedication Nov. 7

Thanks to the participation of residents, Wheaton schools and community groups, the City collected an eclectic mix of items for a time capsule set to be opened on Wheaton's bicentennial anniversary in 2059.

In June, the City unearthed a time capsule from 1959 and displayed the contents during a community event in Memorial Park as part of its yearlong sesquicentennial celebration. To continue the tradition, the City has created a new time capsule to be opened in 50 years.

Some of the items

Community invited to attend ceremony

submitted include yearbooks, letters to future generations, a high school cheerleading uniform, newspaper articles, pictures, a cell phone, DVDs and a number of items from Wheaton's sesquicentennial anniversary celebration. All of the items were carefully prepared for burial with the help of the Center for History.

The City invites residents to take part in a dedication ceremony at 9 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 7 in front of City Hall, 303 W. Wesley St. Residents and community groups who submitted items for the time capsule are encouraged to attend.

A variety of items submitted by the community will be placed in the time capsule and buried Nov. 7.

